

The Legend of the three musketeers

A story written by Lucas Castilla,
Maxime Pons, and Iban Chabanisdufour

Once upon a time...

- There were three boys: Linck, Ban , and Acyd.
- These three boys were courageous but also different.
- Linck was very strong and reserved, Ban was smart and clever, ans Acyd was a good warrior . They decided to call themselves the three musketeers

- One day they fought a magic dragon. They were not afraid. The fight took place next a village .
- This dragon looked like threatening, he flew in the air and moved quickly.
- He attacked also the three heroes but they succeeded to conquer the horrific dragon.
- It was a huge feat.

- Another day the brave trio fought a horrible Giant. He was 10 meters high, he had two heads and a shield Acyd chopped off his legs.
- Link shot an arrow in the right eye and Ban cut both heads.
- The three heroes saved the villagers and got a lot of gold in reward.

So the legend of the three musketeers started.
They went in the quest for adventure for hundred years
