First part

Once upon a time, a boy named Diego.

He lived in a house in Argentina. He liked playing football and he liked walking in the forest. He lived all alone because his parents died when he was a baby. Diego was always very sad and he played football. He hoped he would become a football professional player to make his parents proud from the sky.

Diego was shy and didn't talk to anyone. He was an only son and was very bored. He was very bad at school but played football very well.

This history was happening in a magic world wich was named « The Magic Foot». The world was full of trees and there were five football fields. This world was only for the ones who played football very well and the onces who worked hard to become professionnal players.

Second part

One day, Diego missed the ball and he tripped over a branch and fainted.

He woke up in a very strange world. Diego met a man, named « Debrun ». He came to him; he explained him what he had to do.

He had to succed three challenges to become professional player.

The first challenge was versus Messi. Diego had to score 2 goals to win. He shot the ball very strongly and he scored. The ball went under the crossbar. He shot a second time a little stronger and scored again, finished the duel and passed to the second duel.

He cried because he had won.

Diego went to the second duel.

Third part

After winning Messi, Diego faced Beckam in a second duel. But Diego's agility and speed allowed him to make short work of it.

His football dream was only result to the last duel. This one didn't take long.

Griezmann, his hero, his master, his lifelong idol, approached. He was going to face him. He couldn't believe it. He was shaking with emotion. Whatever the end, he had won. But his dream to become a professional player came back.

The game was hard, tough. Griezmann was great. But after an extraordinary match, Griezmann had a bad cramp. So, Diego could score the final goal. The stadium cheered Diego. The crowd was screaming "Diego! Diego!"

He was going to turn professional !!!!

"Diego! Diego!" A vibe .... "Diego!" "Emilian...Baptist...
Nolan ""Diego!"

"Diego"

"Boys. Wake up. It's time"

I was at home, with my best friends...... It was just a dream!
