Once upon a time a football player. He was named Cristiano Ronaldo. He was muscular, intelligent, handsome, fast and rich. Ronaldo played in Real Madrid. He was a good player and had five golden balls but he had an adversary. He was named Lionel Messi. Lionel was little, evil and shrewd. Messi played in Barcelona. He was a good player but he was not as talented as Ronaldo. Messi had seven golden balls.

One day there was the ceremony of the golden ball. But it was canceled because the golden ball was stolen. Ronaldo was angry about these news because all the world thought that he was going to win. Immediately Cristiano thought about Messi. So Ronaldo came to Messi's home the following night.

Once he arrived at Messi's home, he entered in a room and discovered a padlocked door. Cristiano was so muscular that he pulverized the padlock with one punch. Cristiano opened the door and saw a big world of football. He walked a long time in a magic forest. In this forest there were balls on trees and goalkeeper gloves. Under an apple tree, a young boy was hiding. He was named Kylian Mbappé. Kylian gave a magic ball to Cristiano and said : "It is a compass ball". The compass guided Ronaldo to a golden cave. There, he found Messi with a golden ball in his hands.
