

THE FOREST

First Part :

Once upon a time it was a birthday of a boy. His name was Jason.

He was a big boy and he had curly hair. He invited two friends. Their names were Jackson and Michael.

Jackson was a little boy and he had dark hair.

Michael was of average height and he was very brave.

This birthday happend in a house next to a hunted forest according to inhabitants: it was called the Dark Forest. When suddenly they heard a noise coming from the forest behind Jason's house.

Second Part :

The three boys were very curious. They went in the forest to check very quickly. The three boys moved deep into the forest and got lost. The noise was heard again several times and it got closer and closer .

A shadow arrived at full speed. The shadow approached and they saw a wolf chased by a bear. Jason, Jackson and Michael had to protect themselves, They saw a cabin and hid inside. Inside were heads of wolves, bears and fish hanging there on the wall.

The three boys, believed that – this small cabin belonged to a hunter. When suddenly the door opened and a man with a burned head and a dagger. He whispered how he would kill his next victims.

The three boys went to hide in the basement. In the basement there were corpses. Jason went to hide in a cupboard .

Michael hid under a workbench and Jackson hid behind a body. Michael bumped his head against the workbench and a tool fell. The man heard it. They heard the man coming down the stairs with rage. Michael saw a shadow approached the workbench. Michael looked around. He saw a trap door. And he stepped inside.

He ran in the forest to find the police station.

The policeman came to the place and saw an abandoned house. They went in the house. The policeman went in the basement. They found the boys and the man with a burned head. He decided to call his colleague. The policemen went to the the basement and saw the other policeman.

They tried to catch the man with the burned head but the man succeeded to flee in the dark forest.

Third Part:

The police investigated but they did not find any footprints. The investigation is still ongoing today.

The three boys returned to Jason's house. They never went to the forest again because they had been so frightened.

Legend was that someone found the man with a burned head and locked him in his house. Since that day no one was returned into the forest.

THE END